

My friend is dying of cancer. A convert to the faith, she is surrounded by people who are non Catholics and prejudiced against the Church. I live 140 miles away and need spiritual energy to go as often as possible to be with her. Lord, do not let her linger too long.

Mary Joann